Introduction to Rec Commissioner Jack Abbruzzese

Jack said he was happy to be here. Jack and Maria will rotate meetings. Jack said his door is always open.

Splash News Letter

Council and School Board for board members to take and distribute there. Please emphasize on the Baseball program. It was put on Facebook. We have our own website. Not “You know you’re from Brooklyn”.

Age Ordinance

To the Law Director and Mayor. It used to be 6 and under an adult had to be with you at all times. 7 & 8 an adult in the building. 9 free for all and we were having a lot of issues and ended up babysitting children all day. The new is 11 under adult at all times with them. 9 an adult in Natatorium. 9 and under and if unable to pass Swim test you must have adult in water. This will help with more supervision.

2019 Ice Show

This year's Ice Show is April 26 and 27 on Friday and Saturday.

Easter Hours

Closed on Good Friday and Easter Sunday. Open on Saturday.

Open Forum

Mike asked if Ice down after the show. It will be back up Tuesday after Labor Day, September 3rd. Alison asked about Brooklyn Figure Skating Club at the March meeting and their concerns. Maria said 2 Rinks charge the same for all ice rentals. BFSC need to get more skaters or put on fund raisers. The President apologized for member who spoke at the last meeting. Kevin asked about Memorial II if it was used last year. Maria said it was and that we put dirt on it last year. A water main break flooded the area last week. We have a lot of rentals using the fields for baseball. Teams from Emerald Necklace, 2 Scorpions boys traveling teams, our in house and travel leagues and CYO.
